

The Scuba Diver Song
(to the tune of "The Lumberjack Song")

To be performed with 1 (one) Scuba Diver and A lot of Mermaids

by Marlis Sabo

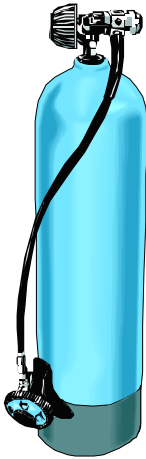

I'm a scuba-man
And I'm OK
I sleep all night
And I dive all day.

mermaids:

He's a scuba-man
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he dives all day.

I get dressed up,
Take my air
And strap it to my back.
I strut up to the dock-end
And jump in with a splat!

He gets dressed up
Takes his air
And straps it to his back.
He struts up to the dock-end
And jumps in with a splat!

Oh- He's a scuba-man
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he dives all day.

I sink too fast
I've got a cold
Now I'm in a SQUEEZE.
To keep my eardrums happy
I'll hold my nose and wheeze.

He sank too fast
He has a cold
Now he's in a SQUEEZE.
To keep his eardrums happy
He'll hold his nose and wheeze.

Oh- He's a scuba-man
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he dives all day.

Now I'm swimming
deep, deep down
it's really quite a lark.
I share my air with fishies
And hang around with sharks.

He is swimming
deep, deep down
He's really not too smart.
He shares his air with fishies
And hangs around with SHARKS!?!

Oh- He's a scuba-man
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he dives all day.

I've had my fun
My tank is low
It's time to go back up.
My brain is feeling funny
Need stop to I'm confdjiosfkl...

He's had is fun
His tank is low
He should have left before.
That nitrogen narcosis
Will lay you on the floor.

Oh- He's a scuba-man
And he's OK
He sleeps all night
And he dives all day.

As I rise
I rise too fast
The air in me expands.
The BENDS, the CHOKES, the flatulence,
And then my lungs explode.

As he rose,
He rose too fast
The air inside expands.
He really should have thought of this
Before he made his plans.

I'm a scuba-man
But I feel bad
Now I'm dead
And it makes me sad.

Ohhhh- He's a scuba-man
And that's too bad...
He would've been fine
If he'd thought a tad.
